Protection of Tribal Heritage in Madhya Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh and Bihar

1479. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there is growing discontent among the primitive tribes in Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Bihar due to the growing urbanisation and modernisation in the tribal areas; and

(b) what steps Government have taken to preserve the cultural and linguistic identity and heritage of the tribals there?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI L. P. SHAHI): (a) The Anthropological Survey of India under the Department of Culture has not carried out any studies recently on the growing discontent among the primitive tribes of Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Bihar due to growing urbanisation and modernisation.

(b) Though 'Culture' including preservation and promotion is primarily a State Subject, the Government of India through the Department of Culture's Scheme and Programmes and those of the organisations under its aegis, have taken steps for the preservation of the cultural and linguistic identity and heritage of the tribals

The Zonal Cultural Centres set up in the recent past have had many tribal Festivals and Workshops in different parts of the country.

The Lalit Kala Akademi and Sangeet Natak Akademi have schemes for survey and documentation of folk tribal and traditional art. Financial assistance is also given to cultural institutions for promotion and preservation of tribal art. The Sangeet Natak Akademi acquires tribal musical instruments and arranges performance of tribal art forms.

Regarding the linguistic identity, the Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysore is engaged in the task of promotion and development of tribal and other languages. They are now doing work on 57 Tribal languages.
